New fees a bad idea, say miners

By Susan L. Ryan

THE MINERS' industry is strongly opposed to a proposed fee system that would increase the government's share of mining profits, saying that the fee would make the industry less competitive.

GOV'T WATCH

Serving and Protecting the Consuming Public

So the CONSUMING PUBLIC MAY KNOW
Relevant Facts and Details on the OIL DEREGULATION LAW (R.A. 8479)

As the Consumer Advocate Organization who leads the the Friends of the Consuming Public, GOV'T WATCH is a non-profit organization that is dedicated to the OIL DEREGULATION LAW, of particular interest is Chapter II titled ANTI-TRUST SAFEGUARDS, OTHER PROTECTED ACTS AND REMEDIES. Section 11, states:

ANTI-TRUST SAFEGUARDS - TO ENSURE FAIR COMPETITION AND PREVENT CARTELS AND MONOPOLIES IN THE INDUSTRY, the following acts are hereby prohibited:

- a) CARTELIZATION - means AN AGREEMENT, COMBINATION or CONCERTED ACTION by three or more persons and/or dealers to fix prices, restrict outputs or divide markets;
- b) PREDATORY PRICING - means SELLING or OFFERING TO SELL ANY OIL PRODUCT AT A PRICE BELOW THE SELLER'S OR OFFEROR'S AVERAGE VARIABLE COST; or
- c) DISCOURAGING COMPETITION - means SELLING or OFFERING TO SELL ANY OIL PRODUCT AT A PRICE BELOW THE SELLER'S OR OFFEROR'S AVERAGE VARIABLE COST; or
- d) DISCOURAGING COMPETITION - means SELLING or OFFERING TO SELL ANY OIL PRODUCT AT A PRICE BELOW THE SELLER'S OR OFFEROR'S AVERAGE VARIABLE COST; or

Any person, including but not limited to the COO, CEO, or CFO of the Petromarketing Corporation, or any entity involved, who is found guilty of any of the acts mentioned above shall suffer the PENALTY OF THREE (3) TO FIVE (5) YEARS IMPRISONMENT, AND A FINE RANGING FROM ONE MILLION PESOS (P 1,000,000.00) TO TWO MILLION PESOS (P 2,000,000.00).

GOV'T WATCH reiterates that the De-De-De Task Force headed by De-De-De Secretary just came out with its recommendations. De-De-De Secretary told the law will work hand in hand with Gov't Watch Chairman for Competition, who represents the interests of the Consuming Public.

Together, they will be VIGILANT and will SAVE PUBLIC, the actual inventories of the Oil Companies at 24 hours, the 15-day moving average price for the Oil Importers and the 45-day moving average price for the only Oil Refiner, Pajala.

In reality, the OIL DEREGULATION LAW is a highly effective and efficient LAW in terms of protecting the interests of the Consuming Public.

GOV'T WATCH urges Pajala and the Government Agencies concerned to BE MORE VIGILANT AND STRICT IN THE ENFORCEMENT of the OIL DEREGULATION LAW for the benefit of the Consuming Public.

Lectures set on depression

The Department of Health (DOH) is set to launch a series of lectures on depression, aimed at raising awareness and providing information on the condition. The lectures will be held in various parts of the country, including Manila, Cebu, and Davao. The DOH Secretary, Dr. Ferdinand Y. Sison, said that depression is a common mental health condition that affects millions of people worldwide. He emphasized the importance of early detection and treatment to prevent complications. The lectures will be conducted by experts in the field of mental health, including psychologists, psychiatrists, and social workers. They will cover topics such as the symptoms of depression, its causes, and available treatment options. The DOH is committed to promoting mental health and providing support to those affected by depression. The lectures are part of a larger campaign to reduce the stigma associated with mental health conditions and encourage people to seek help when needed.

Big bikes came in balikbayan boxes

By Dennis C. Manal

A big bike craze is sweeping across the country, with many Filipinos flocking to the streets to buy the latest models. The craze is fueled by the fact that big bikes are now being imported in large quantities from the United States and other countries. This has led to a significant increase in the number of big bikes on the streets of the Philippines.

Soul-searching in France after Strauss-Kahn arrest jolts nation

Paris — On a rare occasion, the French government has been forced to acknowledge that it has failed to protect its citizens from sexual harassment. The government's response to the arrest of Dominique Strauss-Kahn, the former head of the International Monetary Fund (IMF), has been widely criticized for being too slow and too weak.

The arrest of Strauss-Kahn, 57, on charges of sexual assault on a hotel maid, has sent shockwaves through the French media and public. The incident has raised questions about the power and influence of the former IMF chief, who served as the head of the French government from 2007 to 2010.

The arrest has also raised questions about the French justice system and the treatment of high-profile individuals. The government's initial response was seen as inadequate, leading to widespread criticism.

Rightist Move
The arrest of Strauss-Kahn has also led to a resurgence of right-wing politics in France. The far-right National Front party, led by Marine Le Pen, has gained significant support in recent elections.

The incident has also led to a re-evaluation of the French justice system. There have been calls for greater transparency and accountability in the handling of high-profile cases. The government has promised to implement reforms to the justice system.

The arrest of Strauss-Kahn has also led to a re-evaluation of the French media. There have been calls for greater oversight and regulation of the media, particularly in the case of high-profile individuals.

Scandal unravels
The arrest of Strauss-Kahn has also led to a re-evaluation of the French justice system. There have been calls for greater transparency and accountability in the handling of high-profile cases. The government has promised to implement reforms to the justice system.

The incident has also led to a re-evaluation of the French media. There have been calls for greater oversight and regulation of the media, particularly in the case of high-profile individuals.

Pledge of reform

DURING THE 1987 campaign season, the late Sen. Juan P. Enrile, Jr. was the only senator to pledge to resign if elected to the Senate in 1992. He was the only senator to do so.

EDITORIAL

It is a pity that Sen. Enrile's pledge was not taken seriously by the public. He was the only senator to do so. He was the only senator to do so.

When deeds speak

By [Name]

When deeds speak, the words are not needed. The actions of the church and the state are what truly matter. It is not enough to have a church that is rich in tradition and history. It is not enough to have a state that is strong and powerful. It is the actions of the church and the state that truly matter.

Still, imagine

By [Name]

Still, imagine a world where the church and the state are truly one. Where the church is not just a place of worship, but a place of action. Where the state is not just a government, but a government that truly serves the people. It is a world that we should all strive to create.

Fishkills reported in Pampanga River

By Valerie Pineda

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — A massive fish kill was reported in the Pampanga River, one of the largest waterways in the Philippines, on Sunday. The incident, which occurred in the town of San Fernando, Pampanga, involved the death of thousands of fish, including tilapia and catfish, which were found floating in the river. The fish kills were reported by local residents and fish farmers, who said that the fish had died suddenly and without any apparent cause. The incident has raised concerns about the health of the river and the impact of pollution on the local ecosystem. The Pampanga River is a vital source of water for the people of Pampanga and is also used for fishing and agriculture. The fish kills have caused significant economic losses for the local fishing community and have also affected the quality of the water. The local government has ordered an investigation into the cause of the fish kills and has asked the residents to refrain from dumping waste in the river. The incident has also drawn the attention of the national government, which has ordered the Department of Environment and Natural Resources to conduct a study on the health of the river. The fish kills in the Pampanga River are part of a larger trend of environmental degradation in the Philippines. In recent years, there have been several reports of fish kills in other rivers and lakes, which have been attributed to pollution and the use of pesticides and fertilizers. The fish kills in the Pampanga River are a stark reminder of the need to protect our natural resources and to take steps to prevent environmental damage.

University professor lives up to his name

By Valerie Pineda

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — A university professor has lived up to his name by becoming a "fisherman" in the Pampanga River. The professor, who is known for his love of fishing, was seen in a small boat on the river, casting his net for fish. The incident was captured on video and has since gone viral on the internet. The professor, who is a well-known figure in the academic community, has been praised for his passion for fishing and for his ability to live up to his name. The video has also drawn attention to the fish kills in the Pampanga River and has helped to raise awareness about the environmental issues facing the river. The professor has said that he has been fishing in the river for many years and that he has always enjoyed it. He has also said that he has never seen so many dead fish before. The incident has also led to a renewed interest in the health of the river and has prompted the local government to take steps to protect it. The professor's story is a testament to the power of passion and to the importance of protecting our natural resources.

Journalists barred from gov't peace consultation in Basilan

By Valerie Pineda

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — The Philippine government has barred journalists from attending a peace consultation in Basilan, a province in the southern Philippines. The government has said that the consultation is a confidential process and that the presence of journalists would compromise the integrity of the process. The consultation is being held between the government and the Moro Islamic Liberation Front (MILF), a separatist group that has been fighting the government for years. The consultation is part of a larger peace process that has been ongoing for several years. The government has said that it is committed to achieving a lasting peace in the region and that it is willing to engage in dialogue with the MILF. However, the MILF has said that it is not willing to engage in dialogue with the government unless the government agrees to certain demands. The peace process has been a long and difficult one, and it remains to be seen whether the consultation will lead to a breakthrough. The barring of journalists has drawn criticism from human rights groups and the media, who say that it is a violation of the right to freedom of expression. The government has said that it is taking the decision to bar journalists as a necessary step to ensure the success of the peace process.

Cops arrest kidnapping leader

By Valerie Pineda

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — Philippine police have arrested a leader of a kidnapping ring in the southern Philippines. The leader, who is known as "Boss" [Name], was arrested in a village in Basilan. He is accused of leading a group of men who have been kidnapping and holding for ransom. The police have said that they have gathered evidence that links [Name] to several kidnappings in the region. [Name] is a well-known figure in the community and has been involved in various criminal activities. The arrest of [Name] is a significant blow to the kidnapping ring and is hoped to lead to the arrest of other members of the group. The police have said that they are continuing their investigation into the kidnapping ring and are looking for more information about the group. The kidnapping ring has been a major problem in the region for several years and has caused significant economic losses. The arrest of [Name] is a step towards ending the kidnapping ring and restoring peace to the region.

Jeepney drivers start strike

MANILA, Jan. 25 (AP) — Jeepney drivers in Manila and other cities in the Philippines started a strike Monday, protesting against a proposed new fare system that would increase the cost of the popular mode of public transport.

The strike, which began at 6 a.m. in Manila, is the latest in a series of protests by jeepney drivers against the proposed new fare system. The drivers' union, the National Union of Jeepney Drivers (NUJD), said it was protesting against the proposed new fare system because it would increase the cost of the popular mode of public transport.

The proposed new fare system, which was approved by the Department of Transportation (DOTr) last year, would increase the fare from P10 to P15 for a 10-minute ride. The union said that the proposed new fare system would be a burden for many commuters, especially those who rely on jeepneys for their daily commute.

'SC order should not be used to drive away fisherfolk'

By Mike Davis
 A SC order should not be used to drive away fisherfolk, a local fishing community has said. The community, which has been fishing in the area for generations, has been told by the state that they must leave the area by a certain date. The community has said that they have been fishing in the area for generations and that they have a right to do so. They have said that the state's order is unfair and that they should be allowed to continue fishing. The community has said that they will continue to fish in the area and that they will not be driven away. They have said that they will continue to fight the state's order and that they will not be intimidated. Figure 1 consists of two scatter plots, labeled (a) and (b), showing the relationship between the number of children and the number of children in the household. The x-axis for both plots is 'Number of children' and the y-axis is 'Number of children in the household'.

Plot (a) shows a positive correlation. The data points are scattered, but there is a general upward trend. The x-axis ranges from 0 to 10, and the y-axis ranges from 0 to 10. The data points are approximately: (1, 1), (2, 2), (3, 3), (4, 4), (5, 5), (6, 6), (7, 7), (8, 8), (9, 9), (10, 10).

All systems go for renewable energy

Exports to Japan jump 17%

By Douglas Hy

U.S. solar exports to Japan jumped 17% in the first seven months of this year, according to the Solar Energy Industries Association (SEIA). The jump was driven by a surge in exports of solar panels, which are used in a variety of applications, from residential to commercial. SEIA says that the increase in exports is a sign of growing demand for solar energy in Japan, which is a major market for U.S. solar products.

NREB files petition recommending FIT rates

By Amy S. Rosen

The National Renewable Energy Board (NREB) has filed a petition with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) recommending that it set feed-in tariffs (FIT) for renewable energy. The petition is part of a broader effort by the NREB to promote the development of renewable energy in the United States. The NREB argues that FITs are necessary to ensure that renewable energy is competitive with fossil fuels and nuclear power. It also argues that FITs will encourage investment in renewable energy and help to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

Moody's: PH firms may retain credit standing

By Michael S. Rosen

Moody's has announced that it may retain the credit standing of Philippine firms that have been affected by the recent financial crisis. The agency says that it will continue to monitor the situation closely and will take action if necessary. Moody's is one of the major credit rating agencies in the world, and its decisions can have a significant impact on the financial markets. The Philippine firms in question are part of a larger group of companies that have been affected by the crisis, and Moody's is trying to determine whether they are still creditworthy.

Philippine firms may retain credit standing, Moody's says. The agency is monitoring the situation closely and will take action if necessary.

'Sniper' drugs promising cure for the Big C

By Peter H. Johnson

Chicken little? No, it's a new type of cancer drug that's being tested in a phase II clinical trial. The drug, called SNIPER, is a combination of two existing drugs, irinotecan and capecitabine, which are used to treat colorectal cancer. The new combination is being tested in a phase II clinical trial, which is a study that evaluates the safety and effectiveness of a new drug or treatment in a larger group of people. The trial is being conducted by the National Cancer Institute (NCI) and the University of California, San Francisco (UCSF). The results of the trial are expected to be published in the next few months.

Makati Med doctors hold charity fun run

By Patricia Arday
Columnist

Supporting the health of the community, the Makati Medical Center (MMC) doctors and staff organized a charity fun run on September 15, 2013. The event was held at the Makati Sports Center and was open to the public. The fun run was a 5K race and was held to raise funds for the MMC's charity foundation. The event was a success and raised a significant amount of money for the foundation. The MMC doctors and staff were very supportive of the event and were very helpful in organizing it. The fun run was a great way for the community to get involved in a charitable cause and to support the health of the community. The MMC doctors and staff were very proud of the success of the event and were very happy to see the community so supportive of the foundation. The fun run was a great day for everyone involved and was a very successful event. The MMC doctors and staff were very grateful for the support of the community and were very happy to see the fun run so successful.
